THE EIGHTEENTH WARD .- On Friday night the stable of Mr. Samuel E. Meeker of Bourenville was broken open, and robbed of a horse worth $200 and a valuable set of harness. No clue whatever to the perpetrator of the robbery has yet been obtained. This is the second time within two months that Mr. Meeker has been robbed by burglars. Other citizens of the Righteenth Ward have been almost as unfortunate of late, and there is no prospect of any increased security for property while the police force is so miserably small. The Ward is larger than a dozen of some of the more thickly settled Wards of the city, and, from its natural beauties, is being rapidly filled with elegant suburban manrions. Many of the residents of the Ward have expended large sums of money in laying out, stocking with choice fruit trees, and adorning their grounds, only to find the product of their labors systematically stolen from them. There are but two usaally, and at best no more than three policemen on duty in the Ward at one time, and their beats average at least five miles each. It is not surprising, therefore, that burglars ply their trade unmolested, and petty thieves scale the fences, denude the grape-vines, s rip the pear-trees, and pilfer the peaches with impunity. It is high time, in view of these facts, that the Supervisors of Kings County made a requisition upon the Police Commissioners for a larger patrol force for Old Bush-

ATTEMPTED PRIZE-FIGHT .- A prize-fight for a small sum of money was to have taken place yesterday afternoon in the neighborhood of Fifth avenue and Greenwood Cenetry. The principals were two young bruisers residing in the Fifth Ward. Bevins, while engaged in introducing a lighter on Atlantic Dork on Saturday, was struck by some machinery attached to a sugar-cane crusher, as d thrown a distance of louriese feet upon the deck of a vessel lying alongsite. He was taken to the College Hoepital, and thence conveyed to his resilience, on the corner of Bergen street and Classon avenue.

PICKPOCKETS.—At the German Republican meeting in the Sixteenth Ward, on Friday night last, the pickpookets were actively and, according to all accounts, profitsoly at work. This was a motion on the part of the Controller to set aside a judgment obtained by the plaintiffs, on the first of October, 1859, against the city for $1.420.83, for services as Heelth Warden in the Eightenith Ward. Warden in the Twelith Ward. The Judge decided the motion in the same manner.

The Judge gives as his reason for arriving at this decision that he is not satisfied any causes are shown for presuming fraud or collusion, or for setting saile the judgment. It did not appear that any act had been done by the Counsel to the Corporation exceeding his authority and there was nothing charged in the plaintiff's affidavits warranting the conclusion that the conduct of the Council was either collusive or faudulent. The motions should therefore be decided. Discharge of insolvent.
